Rear Admiral R. H. Hillenkoetter
Director of Central Intelligence
2439 H Street, N. W.
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Sir:

On October 15, 1947, I was dismissed from my position with C. I. A. under authority of the National Security Act.

Because of this, I have been unable to secure employment elsewhere and it is quite a hardship on me and my family.

On May 28, 1948, I had an appointment with General Wright of your agency and discussed the matter with him. He told me I was not dismissed because of disloyalty and also stated that upon request you would furnish me with a letter so stating.

It will be greatly appreciated if you will mail to me a statement to that effect.

Very truly yours,
